

Empty Bowls Art Scholarship

A CALL FOR ART PROJECT PROPOSALS!

- Do you have a favorite art project just waiting for some funding?
- Would an art grant support a creative collaboration in your classroom?
- Are you working with a talented student ready to set the art world on fire?
- Have your art supplies dwindled? Is the art cupboard bare?

The Empty Bowls Art Scholarship has been established to support artistic endeavors of students and faculty in the Cascade School District. Each year up to $500 is awarded a selected project, or projects, within the district. All elementary teachers and junior high and high school art faculty are eligible to apply. Proposals can focus on group or full classroom projects or on the work of an individual student or faculty member.

- Application deadline: Monday, March 1, 2010.
- Award(s) posted March 25 at the Empty Bowls Soup Supper.
- Download application form at www.uvmend.org/emptybowls.htm.
- Upon completion of project, recipients will be invited to report to the Empty Bowls Committee.
